

Chapter 4. God's promise of entering his rest still stands, so we ought to tremble with fear that some of you might fail to experience it. Verse 2. For this good news -- that God has prepared this rest -- has been announced to us just as it was to them. But it did them no good because they didn't share the faith of those who listened to God. Verse 3. For only we who believe can enter his rest. As for the others, God said, "In my anger I took an oath: 'They will never enter my place of rest,'" even though this rest has been ready since he made the world.

Verse 4. We know it is ready because of the place in the Scriptures where it mentions the seventh day: "On the seventh day God rested from all his work." Verse 5. But in the other passage God said, "They will never enter my place of rest." Verse 6. So God's rest is there for people to enter, but those who first
