Verse 11. Great fear gripped the entire church and everyone else who heard what had happened.
 Verse 12. The apostles were performing many miraculous signs and wonders among the people.
 And all the believers were meeting regularly at the Temple in the area known as Solomon's Colonnade. Verse 13. But no one else dared to join them, even though all the people had high regard for them.

Verse 21. So at daybreak the apostles entered the Temple, as they were told, and immediately began teaching. When the high priest and his officials arrived, they convened the high council -- the full assembly of the elders of Israel. Then they sent for the apostles to be brought from the jail for trial. Verse 22. But when the Temple guards went to the jail, the men were gone. So they returned to the council and reported, Verse 37. After him, at the time of the census, there was Judas of Galilee. He got people to follow him, but he was killed, too, and all his followers were scattered. Verse 38. "So my advice is, leave these men alone. Let them go. If they are planning and doing these things merely on their own, it will soon be overthrown. NLT

Verse 39. But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God!" Verse 40. The others accepted his advice. They called in the apostles and had them flogged. Then they ordered them never again to speak in the name of Jesus, and they let them go. NLT
