Chapter 17. One of the seven angels who had poured out the seven bowls came over and spoke to me. "Come with me," he said, "and I will show you the judgment that is going to come on the great prostitute, who rules over many waters. Verse 2. The kings of the world have committed adultery with her, and the people who belong to this world have been made drunk by the wine of her immorality." Verse 3. So the angel took me in the Spirit into the wilderness. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that had seven heads and ten horns, and blasphemies against God were written all over it. Verse 4. The woman wore purple and scarlet clothing and beautiful jewelry made of gold and precious stones and pearls

Verse 6. I could see that she was drunk -- drunk with the blood of God's holy people who were witnesses for Jesus. I stared at her in complete amazement. Verse 7. "Why are you so amazed?" the angel asked. "I will tell you the mystery of this woman and of the beast with the seven heads and ten horns on which she sits. Verse 8. The beast you saw was once alive but isn't now. And yet he will soon come up out of the bottomless pit and go to eternal destruction. And the people who belong to this world, whose names were not written in the Book of Life before the world was made, will be amazed at the reappearance of this beast who had died.

Verse 11. "The scarlet beast that was, but is no longer, is the eighth king. He is like the other seven, and he, too, is headed for destruction. Verse 12. The ten horns of the beast are ten kings who have not yet risen to power. They will be appointed to their kingdoms for one brief moment to reign with the beast.
