

Chapter 5. So they arrived at the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gerasenes. Verse 2. When Jesus climbed out of the boat, a man possessed by an evil spirit came out from a cemetery to meet him. Verse 3. This man lived among the burial caves and could no longer be restrained, even with a chain. NLT

Verse 4. Whenever he was put into chains and shackles -- as he often was -- he snapped the chains from his wrists and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him. Verse 5. Day and night he wandered among the burial caves and in the hills, howling and cutting himself with sharp stones. NLT

Verse 8. For Jesus had already said to the spirit, "Come out of the man, you evil spirit."
 Verse 9. Then Jesus demanded, "What is your name?" And he replied, "My name is Legion, because there are many of us inside this man." Verse 10. Then the evil spirits begged him again and again not to send them to some distant place.

Verse 11. There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby. Verse 12. "Send us into those pigs," the spirits begged. "Let us enter them." Verse 13. So Jesus gave them permission. The evil spirits came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd of 2,000 pigs plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water. NLT

Verse 14. The herdsmen fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. People rushed out to see what had happened. Verse 15. A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. He was sitting there fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. NLT

Verse 19. But Jesus said, "No, go home to your family, and tell them everything the Lord has done for you and how merciful he has been." Verse 20. So the man started off to visit the Ten Towns of that region and began to proclaim the great things Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed at what he told them.

Verse 21. Jesus got into the boat again and went back to the other side of the lake, where a large crowd gathered around him on the shore. Verse 22. Then a leader of the local synagogue, whose name was Jairus, arrived. When he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet, Verse 23. pleading fervently with him. "My little daughter is dying," he said. NLT

"Please come and lay your hands on her; heal her so she can live." Verse 24. Jesus went with him, and all the people followed, crowding around him. Verse 25. A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding. Verse 26. She had suffered a great deal from many doctors, and over the years she had spent everything she had to pay them, but she had gotten no better. In fact, she had gotten worse. Verse 27. She had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his robe. Verse 28. For she thought to herself, "If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed."

Verse 36. But Jesus overheard them and said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid. Just have faith."
 Verse 37. Then Jesus stopped the crowd and wouldn't let anyone go with him except Peter, James, and John (the brother of James).
