Verse 3. "Listen! A farmer went out to plant some seed. Verse 4. As he scattered it across his field, some of the seed fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate it. Verse 5. Other seed fell on shallow soil with underlying rock.

and choked out the tender plants so they produced no grain. Verse 8. Still other seeds fell on fertile soil, and they sprouted, grew, and produced a crop that was thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times as much as had been planted!" Verse 9. Then he said, "Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand."

--	--	--	--

Verse 10. Later, when Jesus was alone with the twelve disciples and with the others who were gathered around, they asked him what the parables meant. Verse 11. He replied, "You are permitted to understand the secret of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables for everything I say to outsiders, Verse 12. so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled: "When they see what I do, they will learn nothing. When they hear what I say, they will not understand. Otherwise, they will turn to me and be forgiven." Verse 13. Then Jesus said to them, "If you can't understand the meaning of this parable, how will you understand all the other parables? Verse 14. The farmer plants seed by taking God's word to others. Verse 15. The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message, only to have Satan come at once and take it away.

Verse 16. The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. Verse 17. But since they don't have deep roots, they don't last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God's word.

Verse 18. The seed that fell among the thorns represents others who hear God's word, Verse 19. but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life, the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things, so no fruit is produced. Then Jesus asked them, "Would anyone light a lamp and then put it under a basket or under a bed? Of course not! A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light will shine. Verse 22. For everything that is hidden will eventually be brought into the open, and every secret will be brought to light.

But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them." Verse 26. Jesus also said, "The Kingdom of God is like a farmer who scatters seed on the ground. Verse 27. Night and day, while he's asleep or awake, the seed

Verse 34. In fact, in his public ministry he never taught without using parables; but afterward, when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them. Verse 35. As evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake." Verse 36. So they took Jesus in the boat and started out, leaving the crowds behind (although other boats followed). Verse 37. But soon a fierce storm came up. High waves were breaking into the boat, and it began to fill with water. Verse 38. Jesus was sleeping at the back of the boat with his head on a cushion. The disciples woke him up, shouting, "Teacher, don't you care that we're going to drown?" NLT

This man lived among the burial caves and could no longer be restrained, even with a chain.

Verse 6. When Jesus was still some distance away, the man saw him, ran to meet him, and bowed low before him. Verse 7. With a shriek, he screamed, "Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In the name of God, I beg you, don't torture me!"

NLT

Verse 8. For Jesus had already said to the spirit, "Come out of the man, you evil spirit."
 Verse 9. Then Jesus demanded, "What is your name?" And he replied, "My name is Legion, because there are many of us inside this man." Verse 10. Then the evil spirits begged him again and again not to send them to some distant place.

NLT

Verse 11. There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby. Verse 12. "Send us into those pigs," the spirits begged. "Let us enter them." Verse 13. So Jesus gave them permission. The evil spirits came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd of 2,000 pigs plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water. NLT

Verse 14. The herdsmen fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. People rushed out to see what had happened. Verse 15. A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. He was sitting there fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. NLT

Verse 16. Then those who had seen what happened told the others about the demon-possessed man and the pigs. Verse 17. And the crowd began pleading with Jesus to go away and leave them alone. Verse 18. As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon possessed begged to go with him.

Chapter 6. Jesus left that part of the country and returned with his disciples to Nazareth, his hometown. Verse 2. The next Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked,

"Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?" Verse 3. Then they scoffed, "He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us." They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him. NLT

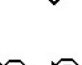

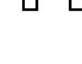

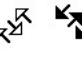

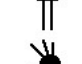

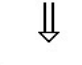

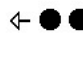

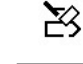

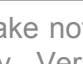

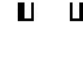

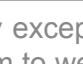

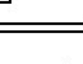

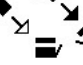

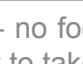

--	--	--	--

Verse 4. Then Jesus told them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family." Verse 5. And because of their unbelief, he couldn't do any mighty miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them.

--	--	--	--

Verse 6. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then Jesus went from village to village, teaching the people. Verse 7. And he called his twelve disciples together and began sending them out two by two, giving them authority to cast out evil spirits. NLT

---	---	---	---

Verse 8. He told them to take nothing for their journey except a walking stick -- no food, no traveler's bag, no money. Verse 9. He allowed them to wear sandals but not to take a change of clothes. Verse 10. "Wherever you go," he said, "stay in the same house until you leave town.

NLT

Verse 11. But if any place refuses to welcome you or listen to you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate." Verse 12. So the disciples went out, telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God.

--	--	--	--

Verse 13. And they cast out many demons and healed many sick people, anointing them with olive oil. Verse 14. Herod Antipas, the king, soon heard about Jesus, because everyone was talking about him. Some were saying, "This must be John the Baptist raised from the dead. That is why he can do such miracles." Verse 15. Others said, "He's the prophet Elijah." Still others said, "He's a prophet like the other great prophets of the past." Verse 16. When Herod heard about Jesus, he said, "John, NLT the man I beheaded, has come back from the dead." Verse 17. For Herod had sent soldiers to arrest and imprison John as a favor to Herodias. She had been his brother Philip's wife, but Herod had married her.

Verse 18. John had been telling Herod, "It is against God's law for you to marry your brother's wife." Verse 19. So Herodias bore a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But without Herod's approval she was powerless, NLT

Verse 20. for Herod respected John; and knowing that he was a good and holy man, he protected him. Herod was greatly disturbed whenever he talked with John, but even so, he liked to listen to him. Verse 21. Herodias's chance finally came on Herod's birthday. He gave a party for his high government officials, army officers, and the leading citizens of Galilee. Verse 22. Then his daughter, also named Herodias, came in and performed a dance that greatly pleased Herod and his guests. "Ask me for anything you like," the king said to the girl, "and I will give it to you."

Verse 23. He even vowed, "I will give you whatever you ask, up to half my kingdom!"
 Verse 24. She went out and asked her mother, "What should I ask for?" Her mother told her, "Ask for the head of John the Baptist!"

---	---	---	---

Verse 25. So the girl hurried back to the king and told him, "I want the head of John the Baptist, right now, on a tray!" Verse 26. Then the king deeply regretted what he had said; but because of the vows he had made in front of his guests, he couldn't refuse her. NLT

Verse 27. So he immediately sent an executioner to the prison to cut off John's head and bring it to him. The soldier beheaded John in the prison, Verse 28. brought his head on a tray, and gave it to the girl, who took it to her mother. Verse 29. When John's disciples heard what had happened, they came to get his body and buried it in a tomb. NLT that Jesus and his apostles didn't even have time to eat. Verse 32. So they left by boat for a quiet place, where they could be alone. Verse 33. But many people recognized them and saw them leaving, and people from many towns ran ahead along the shore and got there ahead of them.

--	--	--	--

Verse 34. Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things. Verse 35. Late in the afternoon his disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. NLT

--	--	--	--

Verse 36. Send the crowds away so they can go to the nearby farms and villages and buy something to eat." Verse 37. But Jesus said, "You feed them." "With what?" they asked. "We'd have to work for months to earn enough money to buy food for all these people!"

NLT

Verse 38. "How much bread do you have?" he asked. "Go and find out." They came back and reported, "We have five loaves of bread and two fish." Verse 39. Then Jesus told the disciples to have the people sit down in groups on the green grass. Verse 40. So they sat down in groups of fifty or a hundred.

NLT

Verse 41. Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. He also divided the fish for everyone to share.

Verse 43. and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover bread and fish. Verse 44. A total of 5,000 men and their families were fed from those loaves! Verse 45. Verse 46. After telling everyone good-bye, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. Verse 47. Late that night, the disciples were in their boat in the middle of the lake, and Jesus was alone on land. Verse 48. He saw that they were in serious trouble, rowing hard and struggling against the wind and waves. About three o'clock in the morning Jesus came toward them, walking on the water.

Verse 53. After they had crossed the lake, they landed at Gennesaret. They brought the boat to shore Verse 54. and climbed out. The people recognized Jesus at once, Verse 55. and they ran throughout the whole area, carrying sick people on mats to wherever they heard he was.

NLT

Chapter 7. One day some Pharisees and teachers of religious law arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus. Verse 2. They noticed that some of his disciples failed to follow the Jewish ritual of hand washing before eating. Verse 3. (The Jews, especially the Pharisees, do not eat until they have poured water over their cupped hands, as required by their ancient traditions. Verse 4. Similarly, they don't eat anything from the market until they immerse their hands in water. This is but one of many traditions they have clung to -- such as their ceremonial washing of cups, pitchers, and kettles.)

--	--	--	--

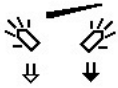

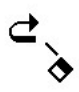

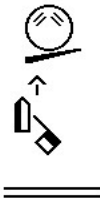

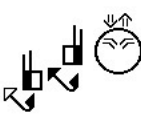

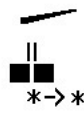

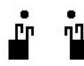

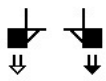

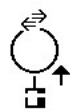

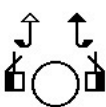

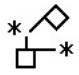

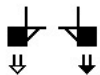

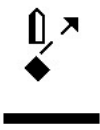

Verse 5. So the Pharisees and teachers of religious law asked him, "Why don't your disciples follow our age-old tradition? They eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony." Verse 6. Jesus replied, "You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote, 'These people

Verse 25. Right away a woman who had heard about him came and fell at his feet. Her little girl was possessed by an evil spirit, Verse 26. and she begged him to cast out the demon from her daughter. Since she was a Gentile, born in Syrian Phoenicia,

--	--	--	--

Verse 31. Jesus left Tyre and went up to Sidon before going back to the Sea of Galilee and the region of the Ten Towns. Verse 32. A deaf man with a speech impediment was brought to him, and the people begged Jesus to lay his hands on the man to heal him. NLT

Verse 33. Jesus led him away from the crowd so they could be alone. He put his fingers into the man's ears. Then, spitting on his own fingers, he touched the man's tongue. Verse 34. Looking up to heaven, he sighed and said, "Ephphatha," which means, "Be opened!" Verse 35. Instantly the man could hear perfectly, and his tongue was freed so he could speak plainly!

Verse 3. If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way. For some of them have come a long distance." Verse 4. His disciples replied, "How are we supposed to find enough food to feed them out here in the wilderness?" NLT

Verse 5. Jesus asked, "How much bread do you have?" "Seven loaves," they replied. Verse 6. So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to his disciples, who distributed the bread to the crowd. Verse 7. A few small fish were found, too, so Jesus also blessed these and told the disciples to distribute them.

--	--	--	--

Verse 8. They ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food. Verse 9. There were about 4,000 people in the crowd that day, and Jesus sent them home after they had eaten. Verse 10. Verse 11. When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had arrived, they came and started to argue with him. Testing him, they demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority. Verse 23. Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then, spitting on the man's eyes, he laid his hands on him and asked, "Can you see anything now?" Verse 24. NLT

Verse 25. Then Jesus placed his hands on the man's eyes again, and his eyes were opened. His sight was completely restored, and he could see everything clearly. Verse 26. Jesus sent him away, saying, "Don't go back into the village on your way home." NLT

Verse 31. Then Jesus began to tell them that the Son of Man must suffer many terrible things and be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but three days later he would rise from the dead. Verse 32. As he talked about this openly with his disciples, Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him for saying such things. Verse 33. Jesus turned around and looked at his disciples, then reprimanded Peter. "Get away from me, Satan!" he said. "You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God's." Verse 34. Then, calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, "If any NLT

Chapter 9. Jesus went on to say, "I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God arrive in great power!" Verse 2. Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. As the men watched, Jesus' appearance was transformed,

Verse 3. and his clothes became dazzling white, far whiter than any earthly bleach could ever make them. Verse 4. Then Elijah and Moses appeared and began talking with Jesus. Verse 5. Peter exclaimed, "Rabbi, it's wonderful for us to be here! Let's make three shelters as memorials -- one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." NLT

Verse 6. He said this because he didn't really know what else to say, for they were all terrified. Verse 7. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my dearly loved Son. Listen to him." Verse 8. Suddenly, when they looked around, Moses and Elijah were gone, and only Jesus was with them. NLT

Verse 9. As they went back down the mountain, he told them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. Verse 10. Verse 13. But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they chose to abuse him, just as the Scriptures predicted." Verse 14. When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd surrounding them, and some teachers of religious law were arguing with them.

--	--	--	--

Verse 15. When the crowd saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with awe, and they ran to greet him. Verse 16. "What is all this arguing about?" Jesus asked. Verse 17. One of the men in the crowd spoke up and said, "Teacher, I brought my son so you could heal him. He is possessed by an evil spirit that won't let him talk.

--	--	--	--

Verse 18. And whenever this spirit seizes him, it throws him violently to the ground. Then he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast out the evil spirit, but they couldn't do it." Verse 19. Jesus said to them, "You faithless people! How long must

--	--	--	--

"I command you to come out of this child and never enter him again!" Verse 26. Then the spirit screamed and threw the boy into another violent convulsion and left him. The boy appeared to be dead. A murmur ran through the crowd as people said, "He's dead." Verse 27. But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him to his feet, and he stood up. NLT

--	--	--	--

Verse 28. Afterward, when Jesus was alone in the house with his disciples, they asked him, "Why couldn't we cast out that evil spirit?" Verse 29. Jesus replied, "This kind can be cast out only by prayer." Verse 30. Leaving that region, they traveled through Galilee. NLT

--	--	--	--

Jesus didn't want anyone to know he was there, Verse 31. for he wanted to spend more time with his disciples and teach them. He said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. He will be killed, but three days later he will rise from the dead."

Verse 35. He sat down, called the twelve disciples over to him, and said, "Whoever wants to be first must take last place and be the servant of everyone else." Verse 36. Then he put a little child among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, Verse 37. "Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf NLT

Chapter 10. Then Jesus left Capernaum and went down to the region of Judea and into the area east of the Jordan River. Once again crowds gathered around him, and as usual he was teaching them. Verse 2. Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question: "Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife?" NLT

--	--	---	--

Verse 3. Jesus answered them with a question: "What did Moses say in the law about divorce?" Verse 4. "Well, he permitted it," they replied. "He said a man can give his wife a written notice of divorce and send her away." Verse 5. But Jesus responded, "He wrote this commandment only as a concession to your hard hearts. NLT

Since they are no longer two but one, Verse 9. let no one split apart what God has joined together."

--	--	--	--

Verse 10. Later, when he was alone with his disciples in the house, they brought up the subject again. Verse 11. Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus once more began to describe everything that was about to happen to him. Verse 33. "Listen," he said, "we're going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. They will sentence him to die and hand him over to the Romans. NLT

--	--	--	--

Verse 34. They will mock him, spit on him, flog him with a whip, and kill him, but after three days he will rise again." Verse 35. Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came over and spoke to him. "Teacher," they said, "we want you to do us a favor." NLT

--	--	--	--

Verse 36. "What is your request?" he asked. Verse 37. They replied, "When you sit on your glorious throne, we want to sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left." Verse 38. But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking!"

--	--	--	--

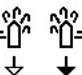

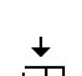

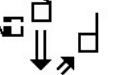

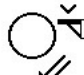

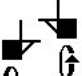

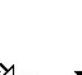

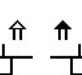

Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink? Are you able to be baptized with the baptism of suffering I must be baptized with?" Verse 39. "Oh yes," they replied, "we are able!" Then Jesus told them, "You will indeed drink from my bitter cup and be baptized with my baptism of suffering.

Verse 40. But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. God has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen." Verse 41. When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant. Verse 42. So Jesus called them together and said, "You know that

Verse 47. When Bartimaeus heard that Jesus of Nazareth was nearby, he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Verse 48. "Be quiet!" many of the people yelled at him. But he only shouted louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" NLT

Verse 49. When Jesus heard him, he stopped and said, "Tell him to come here." So they called the blind man. "Cheer up," they said. "Come on, he's calling you!" Verse 50. Bartimaeus threw aside his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus. NLT

Chapter 11. As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. Verse 2. "Go into that village over there," he told them. "As soon as you enter it, you will see a young

Verse 5. As they were untying it, some bystanders demanded, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" Verse 6. They said what Jesus had told them to say, and they were permitted to take it. Verse 7. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it, and he sat on it.

Verse 8. Many in the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others spread leafy branches they had cut in the fields. Verse 9. Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting, "Praise God! Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!"

Verse 10. Blessings on the coming Kingdom of our ancestor David! Praise God in highest heaven!" Verse 11. So Jesus came to Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around carefully at everything, he left because it was late in the afternoon. Then he returned to Bethany with the twelve disciples.

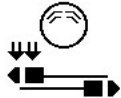

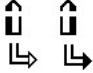

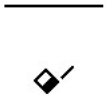

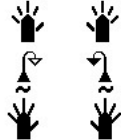

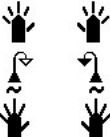

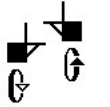

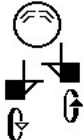

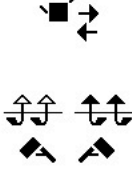

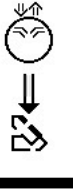

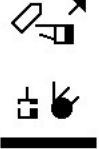

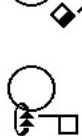

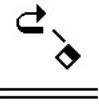

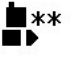

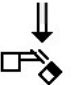

NLT

Verse 12. The next morning as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. Verse 13. He noticed a fig tree in full leaf a little way off, so he went over to see if he could find any figs. But there were only leaves because it was too early in the season for fruit. NLT
