Verse 2. The man's name was Elimelech, and his wife was Naomi. Their two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in the land of Judah. And when they reached Moab, they settled there.

--	--	--	--

Verse 3. Then Elimelech died, and Naomi was left with her two sons. Verse 4. The two sons married Moabite women. One married a woman named Orpah, and the other a woman named Ruth. But about ten years later, Verse 5. both Mahlon and Kilion died. This left Naomi alone, without her two sons or her husband. Verse 6. Then Naomi heard in Moab that the LORD had blessed his people in Judah by giving them good crops again. So Naomi and her daughters-in-law got ready to leave Moab to return to her homeland. NLT

Verse 7. With her two daughters-in-law she set out from the place where she had been living, and they took the road that would lead them back to Judah. Verse 8. But on the way, Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back to your mothers' homes. And may the LORD reward you for your kindness to your husbands and to me. Verse 9. May the LORD bless you with the security of another marriage." Then she kissed them good-bye, and they all broke down and wept. Verse 10. "No," they said. "We want to go with you to your people." Verse 11. But Naomi replied, "Why should you go on with me? Can I still Verse 15. "Look," Naomi said to her, "your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods. You should do the same." Verse 16. But Ruth replied, "Don't ask me to leave you and turn back. Wherever you go, I will go; wherever you live, I will live. NLT

Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God. Verse 17. Wherever you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD punish me severely if I allow anything but death to separate us!" Verse 18. When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she said nothing more. NLT

Verse 19. So the two of them continued on their journey. When they came to Bethlehem, the entire town was excited by their arrival. "Is it really Naomi?" the women asked. Verse 20. "Don't call me Naomi," she responded. "Instead, call me Mara, for the Almighty has made life very bitter for me.

--	--	--	--

Verse 21. I went away full, but the LORD has brought me home empty. Why call me Naomi when the LORD has caused me to suffer and the Almighty has sent such tragedy upon me?" Verse 22. So Naomi returned from Moab, accompanied by her daughter-in-law Ruth,

Chapter 2. Now there was a wealthy and influential man in Bethlehem named Boaz, who was a relative of Naomi's husband, Elimelech. Verse 2. One day Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Let me go out into the harvest fields to pick up the stalks of grain left behind by anyone who is kind enough to let me do it."

NLT

Naomi replied, "All right, my daughter, go ahead." Verse 3. So Ruth went out to gather grain behind the harvesters. And as it happened, she found herself working in a field that belonged to Boaz, the relative of her father-in-law, Elimelech. Verse 4. While she was there, Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters.

NLT

"The LORD be with you!" he said. "The LORD bless you!" the harvesters replied. Verse 5. Then Boaz asked his foreman, "Who is that young woman over there? Who does she belong to?" Verse 6. And the foreman replied, "She is the young woman from Moab who came back with Naomi.

NLT

Stay right behind the young women working in my field. Verse 9. See which part of the field they are harvesting, and then follow them. I have warned the young men not to treat you roughly. And when you are thirsty, help yourself to the water they have drawn from the well."

NLT

Verse 10. Ruth fell at his feet and thanked him warmly. "What have I done to deserve such kindness?" she asked. "I am only a foreigner." Verse 11. "Yes, I know," Boaz replied. "But I also know about everything you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband.

I have heard how you left your father and mother and your own land to live here among complete strangers. Verse 12. May the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge, reward you fully for what you have done." NLT

Verse 13. "I hope I continue to please you, sir," she replied. "You have comforted me by speaking so kindly to me, even though I am not one of your workers." Verse 14. At mealtime Boaz called to her, "Come over here, and help yourself to some food. You can dip your bread in the sour wine." NLT

Verse 16. And pull out some heads of barley from the bundles and drop them on purpose for her. Let her pick them up, and don't give her a hard time!" Verse 17. So Ruth gathered barley there all day, and when she beat out the grain that evening, it filled an entire basket.

So Ruth told her mother-in-law about the man in whose field she had worked. She said, "The man I worked with today is named Boaz." Verse 20. "May the LORD bless him!" Naomi told her daughter-in-law. "He is showing his kindness to us as well as to your dead husband. That man is one

Tonight he will be winnowing barley at the threshing floor. Verse 3. Now do as I tell you -- take a bath and put on perfume and dress in our nicest clothes. Then go to the threshing floor, but don't let Boaz see you until he has finished eating and drinking. NLT

--	--	---	--

Verse 4. Be sure to notice where he lies down; then go and uncover his feet and lie down there. He will tell you what to do." Verse 5. "I will do everything you say," Ruth replied. Verse 6. So she went down to the threshing floor that night and followed the instructions of her mother-in-law.

NLT

Verse 7. After Boaz had finished eating and drinking and was in good spirits, he lay down at the far end of the pile of grain and went to sleep. Then Ruth came quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. Verse 8. Around midnight Boaz suddenly woke up and turned over. He was surprised to find a woman lying at his feet!

NLT

Verse 9. "Who are you?" he asked. "I am your servant Ruth," she replied. "Spread the corner of your covering over me, for you are my family redeemer." Verse 10. "The LORD bless you, my daughter!" Boaz exclaimed. "You are showing even more family loyalty now than you did before, for you have not gone after a younger man," NLT

I will redeem you myself! Now lie down here until morning." Verse 14. So Ruth lay at Boaz's feet until the morning, but she got up before it was light enough for people to recognize each other. For Boaz had said, "No one must know that a woman was here at the threshing floor."

NLT

Verse 15. Then Boaz said to her, "Bring your cloak and spread it out." He measured six scoops of barley into the cloak and placed it on her back. Then he returned to the town.
 Verse 16. When Ruth went back to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, "What happened, my daughter?" Ruth told Naomi everything Boaz had done for her,
