Verse 12. When I turned to see who was speaking to me, I saw seven gold lampstands.
 Verse 13. And standing in the middle of the lampstands was someone like the Son of Man. He was wearing a long robe with a gold sash across his chest. Verse 14. His head and his hair were white like wool, as white as Chapter 4. Then as I looked, I saw a door standing open in heaven, and the same voice I had heard before spoke to me like a trumpet blast. The voice said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this." Verse 2. And instantly I was in the Spirit, and I saw a throne in heaven and someone sitting on it.

NLT

Verse 3. The one sitting on the throne was as brilliant as gemstones -- like jasper and carnelian. And the glow of an emerald circled his throne like a rainbow. Verse 4. Twenty-four thrones surrounded him, and twenty-four elders sat on them. NLT

They were all clothed in white and had gold crowns on their heads. Verse 5. From the throne came flashes of lightning and the rumble of thunder. And in front of the throne were seven torches with burning flames. This is the sevenfold Spirit of God. Verse 6. In front of the throne was a shiny sea of glass, sparkling like crystal.

NLT

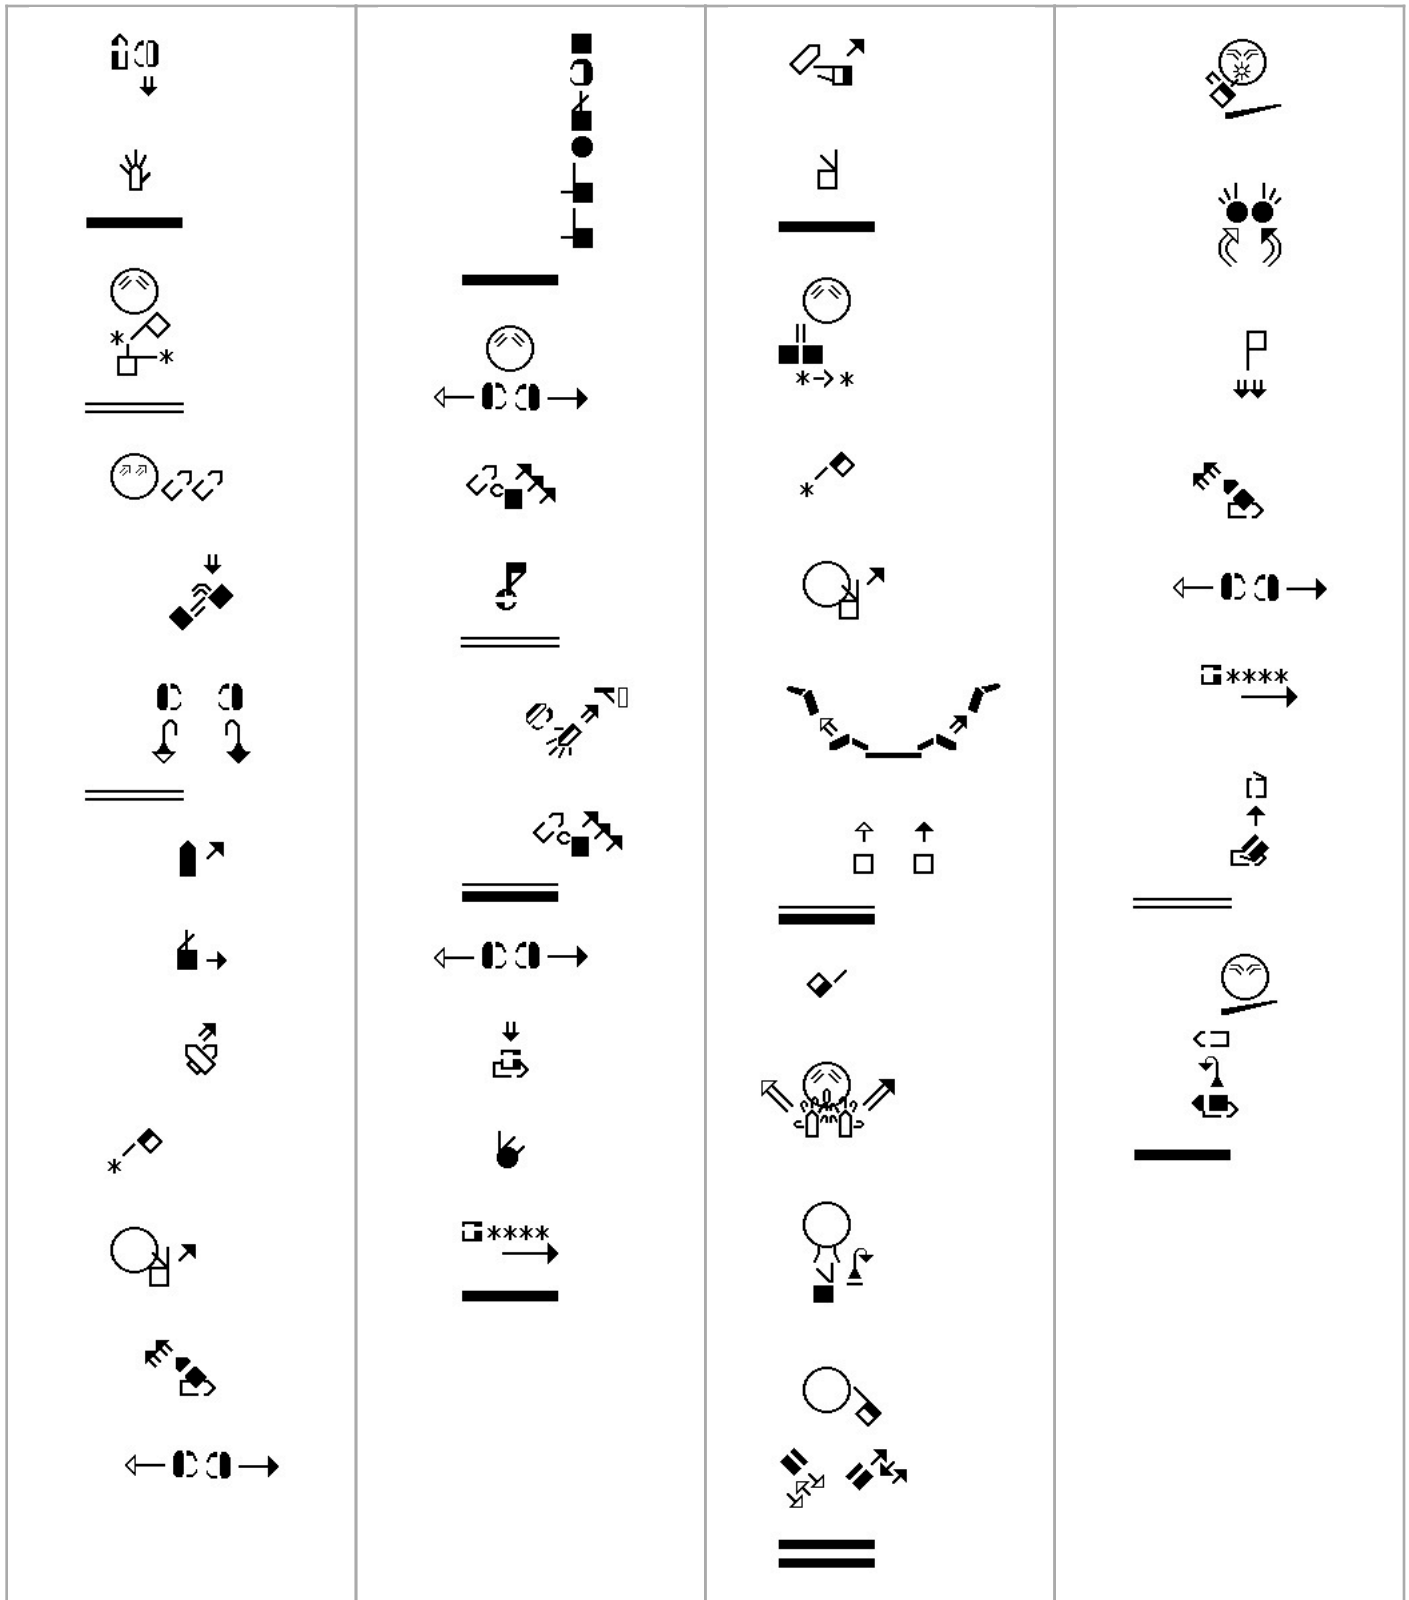

In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back. Verse 7. The first of these living beings was like a lion; the second was like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth was like an eagle in flight. Verse 8. Each of these living beings had six wings, and their wings were

"You are worthy, O Lord our God, to receive glory and honor and power. For you created all things, and they exist because you created what you pleased." NLT

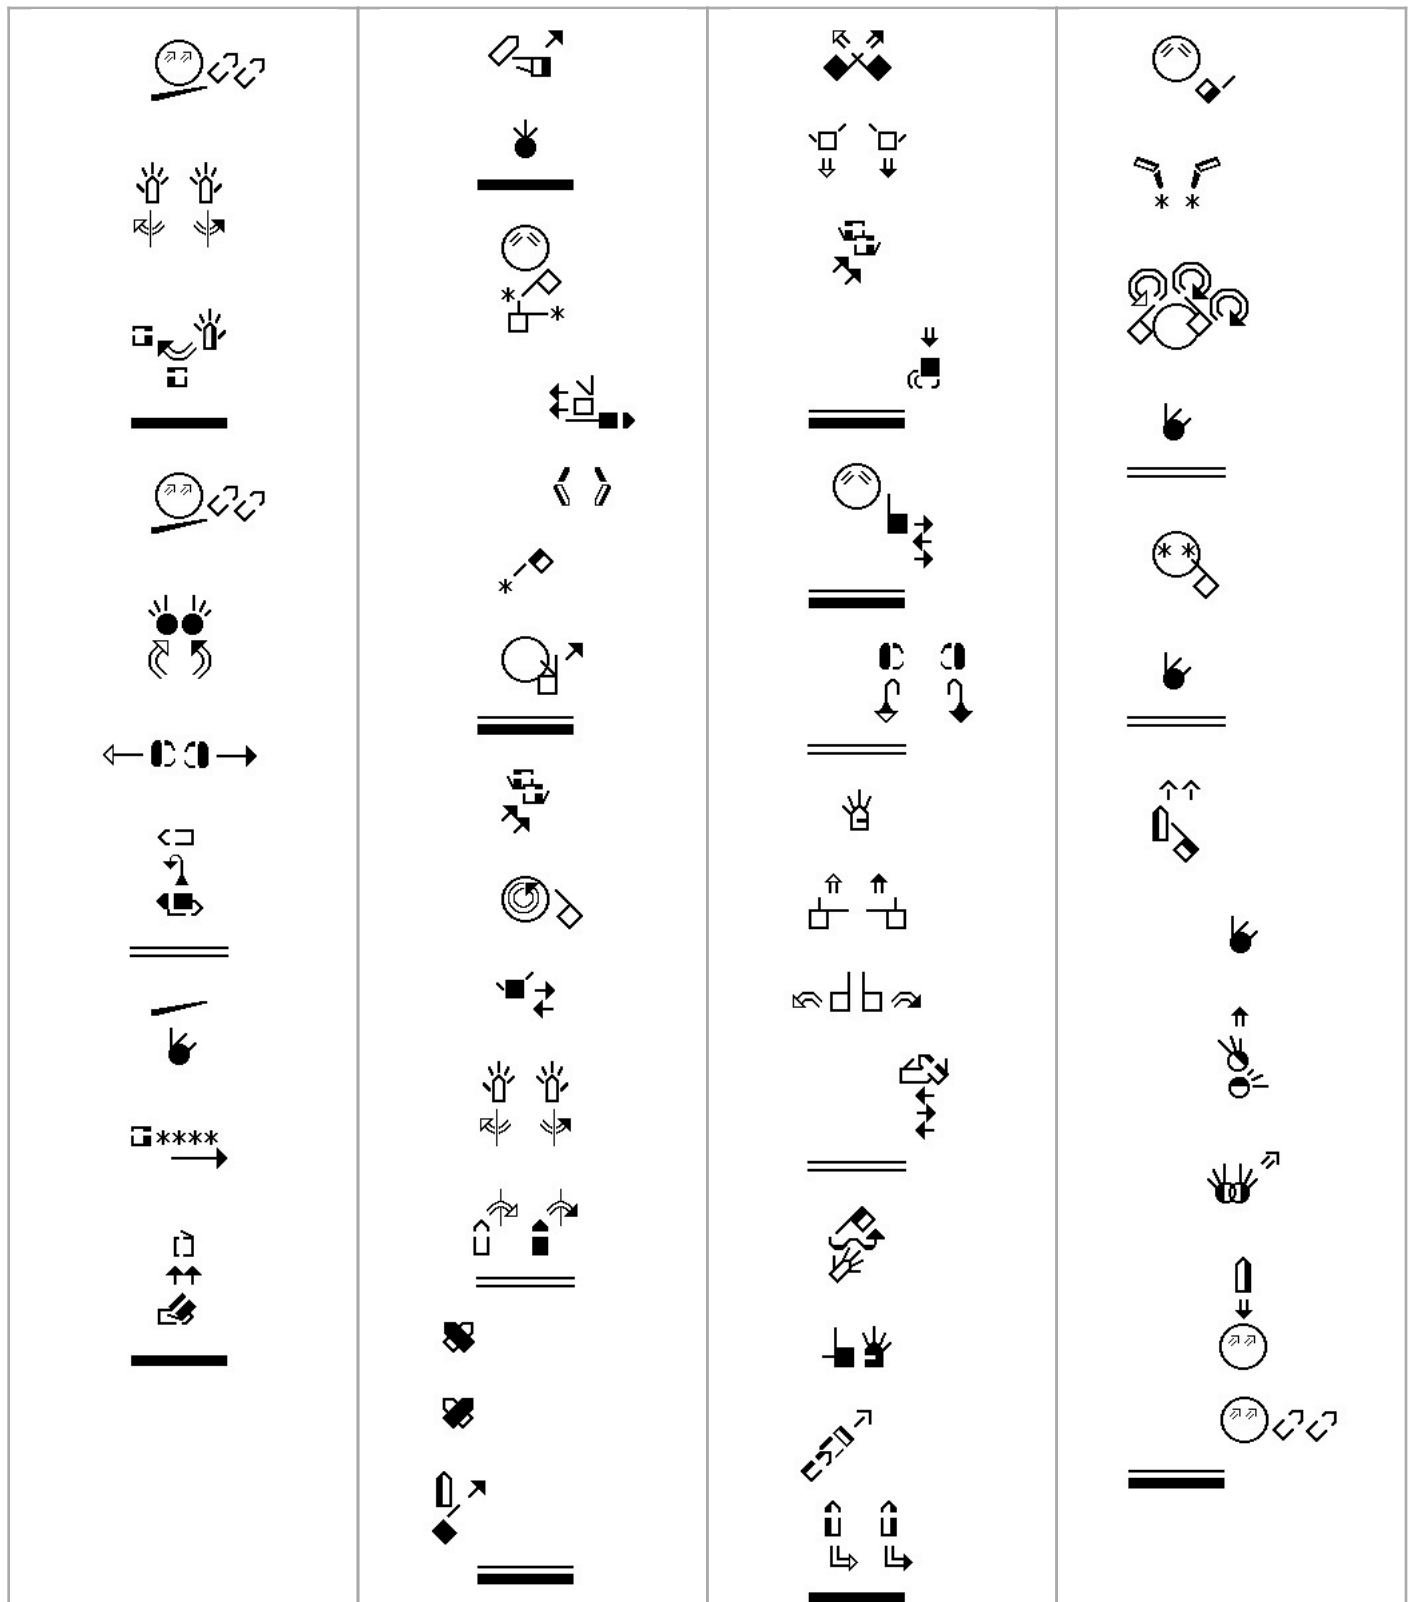

Chapter 5. Then I saw a scroll in the right hand of the one who was sitting on the throne. There was writing on the inside and the outside of the scroll, and it was sealed with seven seals. Verse 2. And I saw a strong angel, who shouted with a loud voice: "Who is worthy to break the seals on this scroll and open it?"

Verse 3. But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll and read it. Verse 4. Then I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll and read it. Verse 5. But one of the twenty-four elders said to me, "Stop weeping! Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the heir to David's throne, has won the victory. He is worthy to open the scroll and its seven seals." Verse 6. Then I saw a Lamb that looked as if it had been slaughtered, but it was now standing between the throne and the four living beings and among the twenty-four elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which represent the sevenfold Spirit of God NLT filled with incense, which are the prayers of God's people. Verse 9. And they sang a new song with these words: "You are worthy to take the scroll and break its seals and open it. For you were slaughtered, and your blood has ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

--	--	--	--

Verse 10. And you have caused them to become a Kingdom of priests for our God. And they will reign on the earth." Verse 11. Then I looked again, and I heard the voices of thousands and millions of angels around the throne and of the living beings and the elders.

NLT

Chapter 6. As I watched, the Lamb broke the first of the seven seals on the scroll. Then I heard one of the four living beings say with a voice like thunder, "Come!" Verse 2. I looked up and saw a white horse standing there. Its rider carried a bow, and a crown was placed on his head. He rode out to win many battles and gain the victory. NLT

Verse 3. When the Lamb broke the second seal, I heard the second living being say, "Come!"
 Verse 4. Then another horse appeared, a red one. Its rider was given a mighty sword and the authority to take peace from the earth. And there was war and slaughter everywhere. Verse 5. When the Lamb broke the third seal, I heard the third living being say,

--	--	--	--

"Come!" I looked up and saw a black horse, and its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand. Verse 6. And I heard a voice from among the four living beings say, "A loaf of wheat bread or three loaves of barley will cost a day's pay. And don't waste the olive oil and wine."

Verse 7. When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living being say, "Come!" Verse 8. I looked up and saw a horse whose color was pale green. Its rider was named Death, and his companion was the Grave. These two were given authority over one-fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and famine and disease and wild animals.

Verse 9. When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of all who had been martyred for the word of God and for being faithful in their testimony. Verse 10. They shouted to the Lord and said, "O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you judge the people who belong to this world

NLT

Verse 12. I watched as the Lamb broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as dark as black cloth, and the moon became as red as blood. Verse 13. Then the stars of the sky fell to the earth like green figs falling from a tree shaken by a strong wind.

NLT

Chapter 8. When the Lamb broke the seventh seal on the scroll, there was silence throughout heaven for about half an hour. Verse 2. I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and they were given seven trumpets. Verse 3. Then another angel with a gold incense burner came and stood at the altar. And a great amount of incense was given to him NLT

The smoke of the incense, mixed with the prayers of God's holy people, ascended up to God from the altar where the angel had poured them out. Verse 5. Then the angel filled the incense burner with fire from the altar and threw it down upon the earth; and thunder crashed, lightning flashed, and there was a terrible earthquake. Verse 6. Then the seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to blow their mighty blasts. Verse 7. The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire mixed with blood were thrown down on the earth. One-third of the earth was set on fire, one-third of the trees were burned, and all the green grass was burned. NLT

Verse 8. Then the second angel blew his trumpet, and a great mountain of fire was thrown into the sea. One-third of the water in the sea became blood, Verse 9. one-third of all things living in the sea died, and one-third of all the ships on the sea were destroyed.

NLT

Verse 10. Then the third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch. It fell on one-third of the rivers and on the springs of water. Verse 11. The name of the star was Bitterness. It made one-third of the water bitter, and many people died from drinking the bitter water. NLT

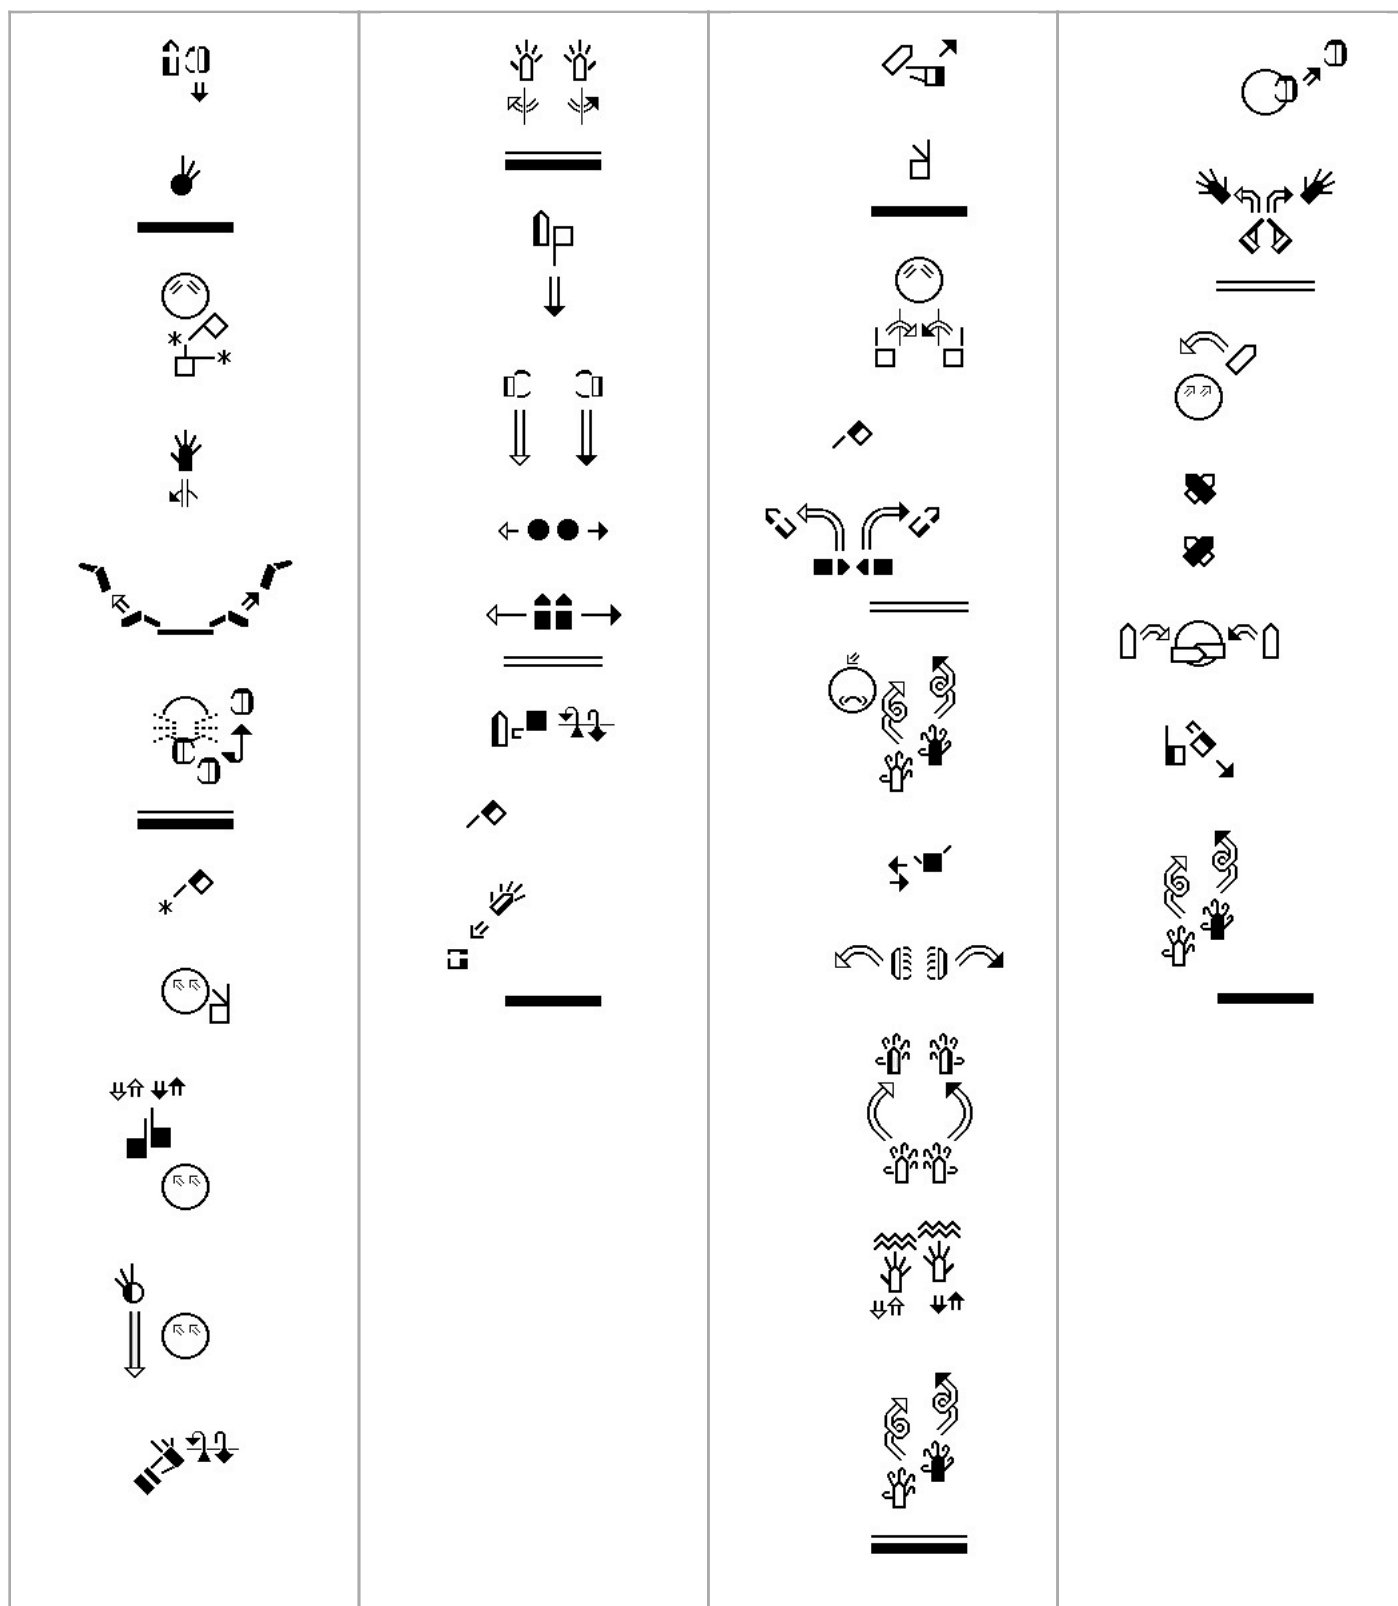

Verse 12. Then the fourth angel blew his trumpet, and one-third of the sun was struck, and one-third of the moon, and one-third of the stars, and they became dark.
