Little Miss Muffet sat on a tuffet,
Eating her curds and whey,

Along came a spider
who sat down beside her,
And frightened Miss Muffet away!

About ASL Poetry by Cherie Wren

ASL poetry expresses rhyme in Sign Language. How? By using the same handshapes throughout the poem. Sometimes only one handshape is used, sometimes two handshapes, and sometimes three handshapes.

About ASL Poetry continued...

For example, Jack and Jill rhymes by using the Index-Handshape in every sign. There is one exception in the sign for the pail of water, but all other signs use the Index-Handshape throughout. Little Miss Muffet rhymes using the 3-Handshape.
