Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

The sun did not shine. It was too wet to play.
So we sat in the house...

all that cold cold wet day.
I sat there with Sally. We sat there we two.

...we sat in the house. We did nothing at all.
So all we could do was to Sit...

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

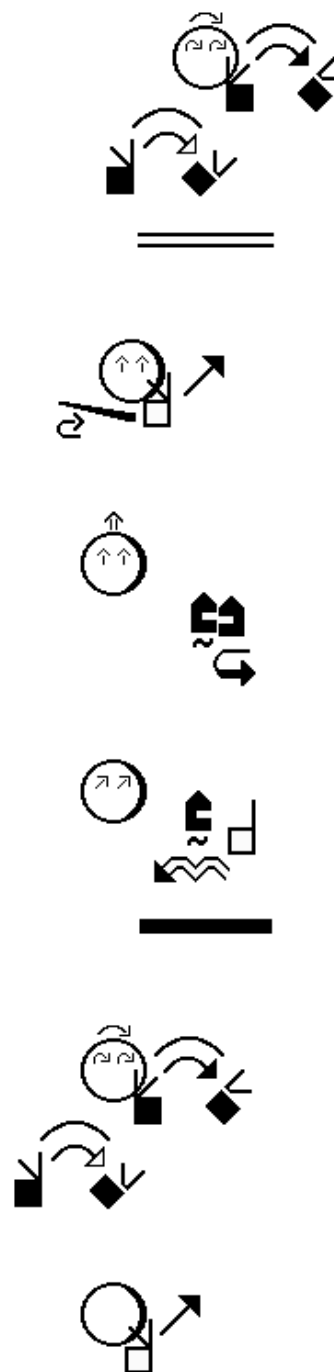

Written in American Sign Language by Cherie Wren

Sit Sit Sit! And we did not like it. Not one little bit.
And then something went BUMP!

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

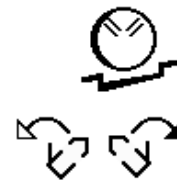

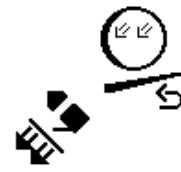

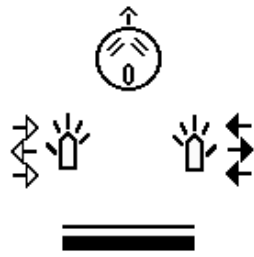

Written in American Sign Language by Cherie Wren

How that bump made us jump! We looked!
Then we saw him step in on the mat! We looked!

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

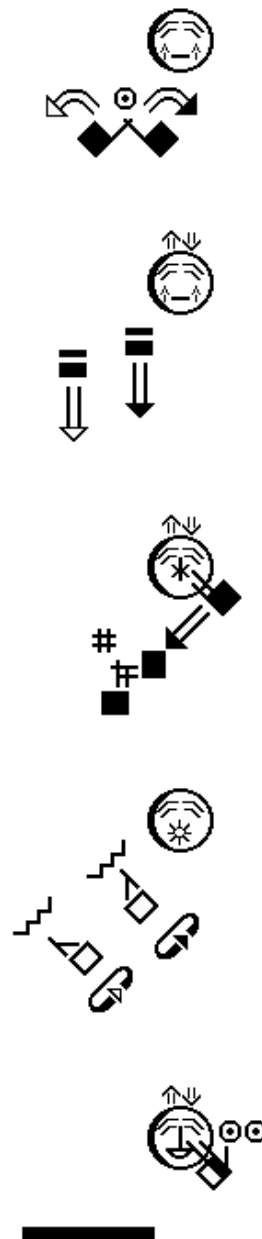

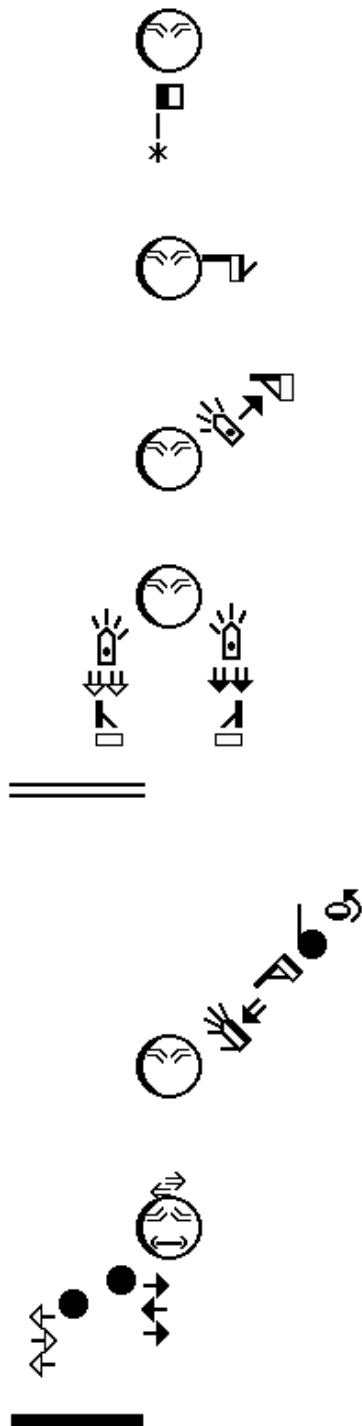

Written in American Sign Language by Cherie Wren

And we saw him! The Cat in the Hat! And he said to us, “Why do you sit there like that?”

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

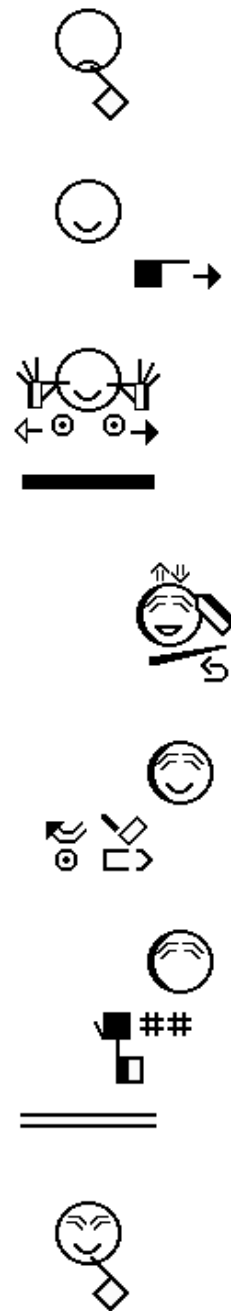

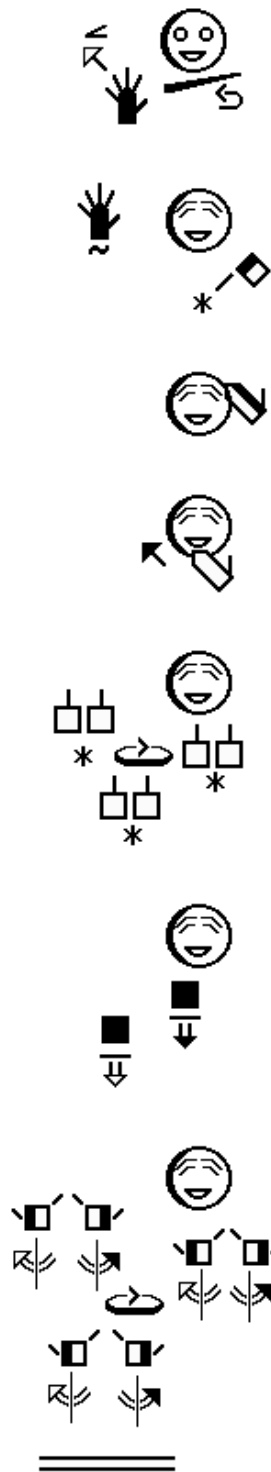

Written in American Sign Language by Cherie Wren

I know it is wet and the sun is not sunny.
But we can have lots of good fun that is funny!"

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

"I know some good games we could play" said the cat.
"I know some new tricks," said

Then Sally and I did not know what to say.
Our mother was out of the house for the day.

But our fish said “No! No! Make that cat go away!
Tell that Cat in the Hat...”

down!" said the fish. "This is no fun at all!
Put me down!" said the fish. "I do not wish to fall!"

 "Have no fear!" said the cat. "I will

I do not! This is not a good game!"

Look at that! You sank our toy ship, sank it deep in the cake.
You shook up our house and you bent our new rake. You

“But I like to be here. Oh, I like it a lot!”
Said the Cat in the Hat

And then he ran out. And fast as a fox, the Cat in the Hat came back with a box. A big red wood box.

"In this box are two things I will show to you now.
You will like these two things,” said the Cat with a bow.

“I will pick up the hook. You will see something new. Two things. And I call them

Thing One and Thing Two. These things will not bite you.

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

They want to have fun.” And out of the box came Thing Two and Thing One! They ran to us fast.

One and Two. We shook their two hands.
But our fish said “No! No! Those be here when your mother is not!

Put them out! Put them out!" said the fish in the pot.

“Have no fear, little fish,” said the Cat in the Hat.
“These Things are good Things.”

And he gave them a pat. "They are tame. Oh, so tame!
They have come here to play."

They will give you some fun on this wet, wet, wet day.
Now here is a game that they like,”

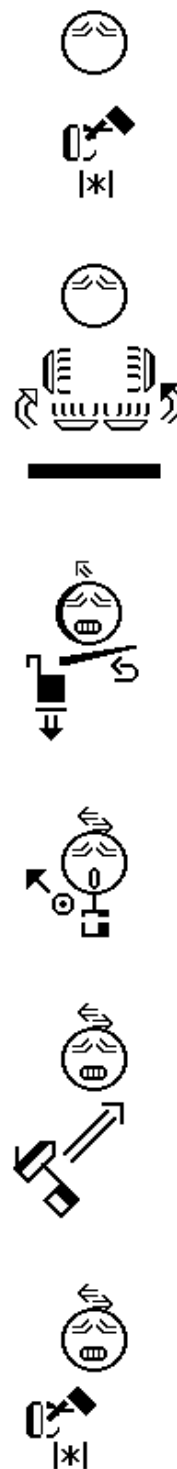

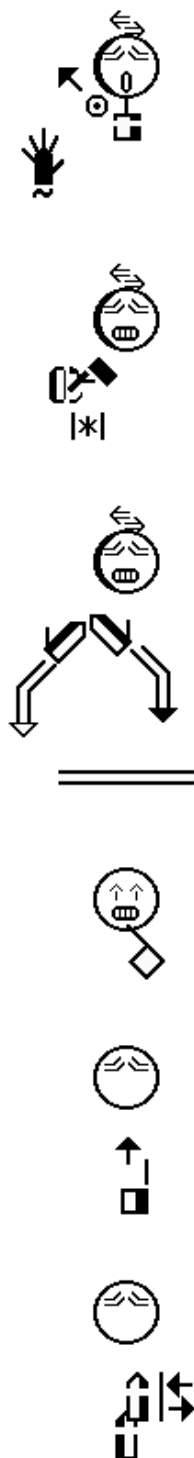

Written in American Sign Language by Cherie Wren

said the Cat. "They like to fly kites," said the Cat in the Hat. "No!

I do not like it! Not one little bit!"
Then Sally and I saw them run down the hall.

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

Written in American Sign Language by Cherie Wren

We saw those two Things bump their kite on the wall!
Bump! Thump! Thump! Bump! Down the wall in the hall.

Cat in the Hat by Dr. Seuss

Written in American Sign Language by Cherie Wren

On the string of one kit we saw mother's new gown!
Her gown with the dots that are pink,

white and red.

Then we saw one kite bump on the head of her bed!

Then I let down my net. It came down with a PLOP! And I had them! At last! Those two Things had to stop! Then I said to the Cat, “Now you do as I say.

You pack up those Things and you take them away!”

And THEN! Who was back in the house? Why, the cat!
