

SignWriting Literacy Project

Deaf students show books they received from the SignWriting Literacy Project.

Donating Materials To Classrooms with Deaf Students

The SignWriting Literacy Project provides unique storybooks, workbooks, dvds, software and educational web sites, specially designed to teach profoundly deaf children to read and write. Classrooms with deaf students who use sign language are benefiting from participating in the project, receiving free materials and instruction, and in return, teachers, students, parents and administrators provide documented feedback. This beneficial exchange of ideas is aiding deaf education and sign language research, and is providing deaf students with new skills and teachers with welcome new literacy tools. Results are published on the SignWriting site: www.SignWriting.org.

Classrooms with deaf students receive:

1. 20 Workbooks Level 1
2. 20 Storybooks Levels 2-4
3. 20 Dictionaries Levels 2-4
4. Flashcards
5. Educational DVDs with Manuals
6. SignPuddle & SignBank Software
7. Lessons In SignWriting Textbook & CD Rom
8. A Web Page for the Class
9. Full Technical & Instruction Support

The SignWriting Literacy Project is sponsored by the 35-year old, La Jolla California based, tax-exempt, educational, 501c3 nonprofit organization, the Center for Sutton Movement Writing, PO Box 517, La Jolla, CA. 92038, www.SignWriting.org. Contact person: Valerie Sutton: tel 858-456-0098 sutton@signwriting.org