

Luke 22. The Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is also called Passover, was approaching. Verse 2. The leading priests and teachers of religious law were plotting how to kill Jesus, but they were afraid of the people's reaction. Verse 3. Then Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve disciples, NLT

Verse 24. Then they began to argue among themselves about who would be the greatest among them. Verse 25. Jesus told them, "In this world the kings and great men lord it over their people, yet they are called 'friends of the people.' Verse 26. But among you it will be different. Those who are the greatest among you should take the lowest rank, and the leader should be like a servant. Verse 27. Who is more important, the one who sits at the table or the one who serves? The one who sits at the table, of course. But not here! For I am among you as one who serves. Verse 28. "You have stayed with me in my time of trial. NLT

Verse 29. And just as my Father has granted me a Kingdom, I now grant you the right Verse 30. to eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. And you will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

written about me by the prophets will come true." Verse 38. "Look, Lord," they replied, "we have two swords among us." "That's enough," he said. Verse 39. Then, accompanied by the disciples, Jesus left the upstairs room 501 and went as usual to the Mount of Olives. Verse 40. There he told them, "Pray that you will not give in to temptation." Verse 41. He walked away, about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, Verse 42. "Father, if you are willing, please take this cup of suffering away from me. NLT

NLT

Yet I want your will to be done, not mine." Verse 43. Then an angel from heaven appeared and strengthened him. Verse 44. He prayed more fervently, and he was in such agony of spirit that his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood. NLT

503 Verse 45. At last he stood up again and returned to the disciples, only to find them asleep, exhausted from grief. Verse 46. "Why are you sleeping?" he asked them. "Get up and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation." NLT

Verse 47. But even as Jesus said this, a crowd approached, led by Judas, one of his twelve disciples. Judas walked over to Jesus to greet him with a kiss. Verse 48. But Jesus said, "Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?" Verse 49. When the other disciples saw what was about to happen, they exclaimed, "Lord,

505 should we fight? We brought the swords!" Verse 50. And one of them struck at the high priest's slave, slashing off his right ear. Verse 51. But Jesus said, "No more of this." And he touched the man's ear and healed him. Verse 52. Then Jesus spoke to the leading priests, the captains of the Temple guard, and the elders NLT

511 Verse 63. The guards in charge of Jesus began mocking and beating him. Verse 64. They blindfolded him and said, "Prophecy to us! Who hit you that time?" Verse 65. And they hurled all sorts of terrible insults at him. NLT

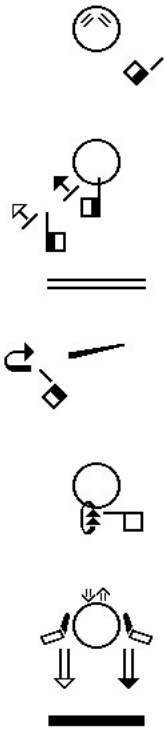

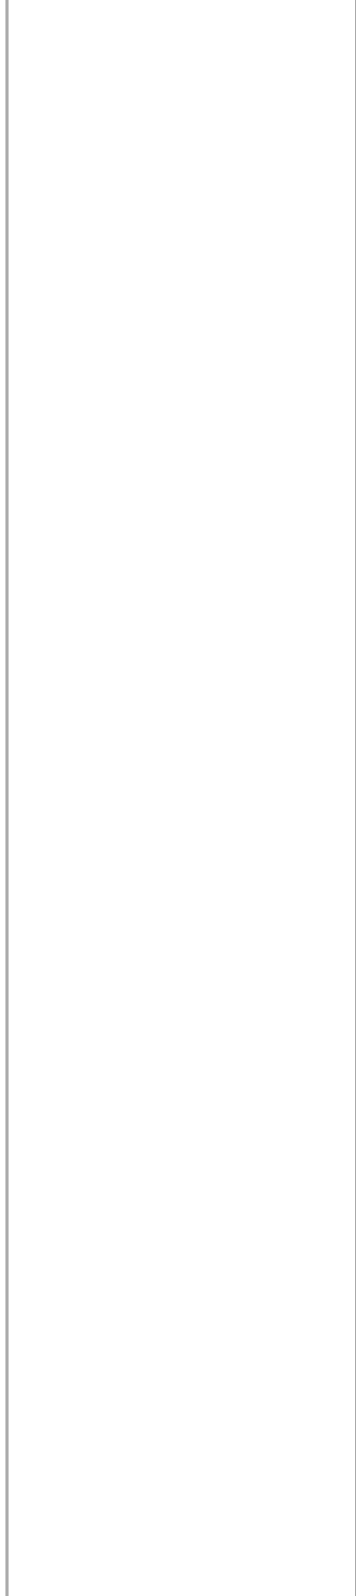

Verse 66. At daybreak all the elders of the people assembled, including the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. Jesus was led before this high council, Verse 67. and they said, "Tell us are you the Messiah?" But he replied, "If I tell you, you won't believe me.

NLT

Verse 68. And if I ask you a question, you won't answer. Verse 69. But from now on the Son of Man will be seated in the place of power at God's right hand." Verse 70. They all shouted, "So, are you claiming to be the Son of God?" NLT

---	--	---	--

And he replied, "You say that I am." Verse 71. "Why do we need other witnesses?" they said. "We ourselves heard him say it."
