Verse 21. Then he began to speak to them. "The Scripture you've just heard has been fulfilled this very day!" Verse 22. Everyone spoke well of him and was amazed by the gracious words that came from his lips. "How can this be?" they asked. "Isn't this Joseph's son?" NLT

Verse 23. Then he said, "You will undoubtedly quote me this proverb: 'Physician, heal yourself' -- meaning, 'Do miracles here in your hometown like those you did in Capernaum.' Verse 24. But I tell you the truth, no prophet is accepted in his own hometown. NLT

Verse 25. "Certainly there were many needy widows in Israel in Elijah's time, when the heavens were closed for three and a half years, and a severe famine devastated the land. Verse 26. Verse 27. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, the the only one healed was Naaman, a Syrian." Verse 28. When they heard this, the people in the synagogue were furious. Verse 29. Jumping up, they mobbed him and forced him to the edge of the hill NLT

Verse 38. After leaving the synagogue that day, Jesus went to Simon's home, where he found Simon's mother-in-law very sick with a high fever. "Please heal her," everyone begged. Verse 39. Standing at her bedside, he rebuked the fever, and it left her. And she got up at once and prepared a meal for them.

Verse 40. As the sun went down that evening, people throughout the village brought sick family members to Jesus. No matter what their diseases were, the touch of his hand healed every one. Verse 41. Many were possessed by demons; and the demons came out at his command, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But because they knew he was the Messiah, he rebuked them and refused to let them speak. Verse 42. Early the next morning Jesus went out to an isolated place. The crowds searched everywhere for him, and when they finally found him, they begged him not to leave them. NLT

Verse 43. But he replied, "I must preach the Good News of the Kingdom of God in other towns, too, because that is why I was sent." Verse 44. So he continued to travel around, preaching in synagogues throughout Judea. NLT

Luke 5. One day as Jesus was preaching on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, great crowds pressed in on him to listen to the word of God. Verse 2. He noticed two empty boats at the water's edge, for the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. NLT

Verse 3. Stepping into one of the boats, Jesus asked Simon, its owner, to push it out into the water. So he sat in the boat and taught the crowds from there. Verse 4. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish."
NLT

Verse 5. "Master," Simon replied, "we worked hard all last night and didn't catch a thing. But if you say so, I'll let the nets down again." Verse 6. And this time their nets were so full of fish they began to tear! Verse 7. A shout for help brought their partners in the other boat, and soon both boats were filled with fish and on the verge of sinking. Verse 8. When Simon Peter realized what had happened, he fell to his knees before Jesus and said, "Oh, Lord, please leave me -- I'm too much of a sinner to be around you." Verse 9. For he was awestruck by the number of fish they had caught, as were the others with him.

Verse 10. His partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were also amazed. Jesus replied to Simon, "Don't be afraid! From now on you'll be fishing for people!" Verse 11. And as soon as they landed, they left everything and followed Jesus. NLT

Verse 12. In one of the villages, Jesus met a man with an advanced case of leprosy. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground, begging to be healed. "Lord," he said, "if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean." Verse 13. Jesus reached out and touched him. "I am willing," he said. Verse 18. Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a sleeping mat. They tried to take him inside to Jesus, Verse 19. but they couldn't reach him because of the crowd.  Verse 21. But the Pharisees and teachers of religious law said to themselves, "Who does he think he is? That's blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!" NLT

Verse 22. Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he asked them, "Why do you question this in your hearts? Verse 23. Is it easier to say 'Your sins are forgiven,' or 'Stand up and walk'? Verse 24. So I will prove to you that the Son of Man has the authority on earth to forgive sins."

Verse 26. Everyone was gripped with great wonder and awe, and they praised God, exclaiming, "We have seen amazing things today!" Verse 27. Later, as Jesus left the town, he saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax collector's booth. "Follow me and be my disciple," Jesus said to him. NLT a fierce storm came down on the lake. The boat was filling with water, and they were in real danger. Verse 24. The disciples went and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we're going to drown!" When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and the raging waves. The storm stopped and all was calm!

Verse 25. Then he asked them, "Where is you faith?" The disciples were terrified and amazed. "Who is this man?" they asked each other. "When he gives a command, even the wind and waves obey him!" Verse 26. So they arrived in the region of the Gerasenes, across the lake from Galilee.

Verse 27. As Jesus was climbing out of the boat, a man who was possessed by demons came out to meet him. For a long time he had been homeless and naked, living in a cemetery outside the town. Verse 28. As soon as he saw Jesus, he shrieked and fell down in front of him. Then he screamed, "Why are you interfering with me, Jesus,

Son of the Most High God? Please, I beg you, don't torture me!" Verse 29. For Jesus had already commanded the evil spirit to come out of him. This spirit had often taken control of the man. Even when he was placed under guard and put in chains and shackles, he simply

Verse 32. There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby, and the demons begged him to let them enter into the pigs. So Jesus gave them permission. Verse 33. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned. NLT

Verse 34. When the herdsmen saw it, they fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. Verse 35. People rushed out to see what had happened. A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been freed from the demons. He was sitting at Jesus' feet, fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. Verse 36. Then those who had seen what happened told the others how the demon-possessed man had been healed. Verse 37. And all the people in the region of the Gerasenes begged Jesus to go away

Verse 39. "No, go back to your family, and tell them everything God has done for you." So he went all through the town proclaiming the great things Jesus had done for him. Verse 40. On the other side of the lake the crowds welcomed Jesus, because they had been waiting for him.

Verse 41. Then a man named Jairus, a leader of the local synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with him to come home with him. Verse 42. His only daughter, who was twelve years old, was dying. As Jesus went with him, he was surrounded by the crowds.
