

I am Shocked .

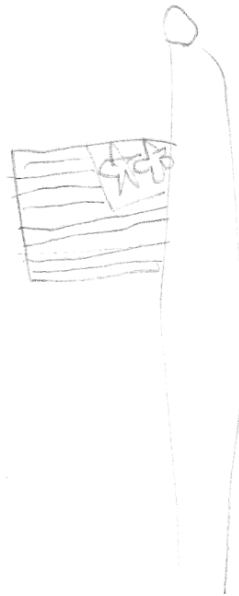

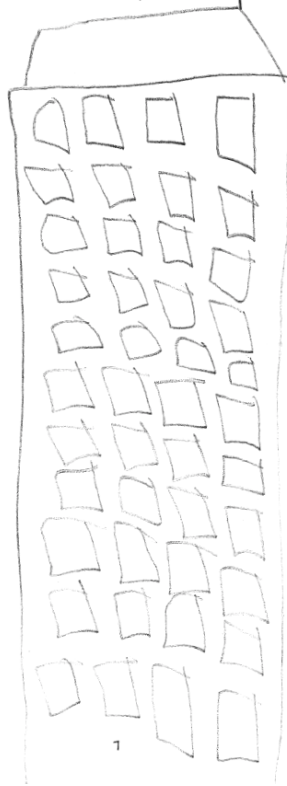

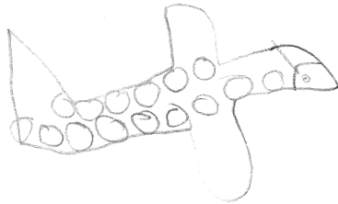

The airplane flew into the building.

People died.

People cried.

Lila 9/13/01

This student dates her comments two days after the event. Her very first comment, written by herself in SignWriting, was one of 'shock'. The simplicity of her statements is profound. The juxtaposition of the aircraft approaching the building not yet destroyed and the prominence of the flag's position may be significant for us all.