

BIOGRAPHY

José Ribeiro da SILVA JÚNIOR, Dr. H. c. mult.

Maximus Instituto David Ben-Gurion de Educação Superior
Coordenação Geral
Rua Sousa Lima, 424 – Centro
Imperatriz–MA, CEP.: 65900-470, BRAZIL
junior_jdk@hotmail.com

Born on March 21, 1988 in the city of Imperatriz–MA (Brazil), José Ribeiro da Silva Júnior has Degree in Pedagogy (FACIMP–MA), and Specialist Docência do Ensino Superior (FACIMP–MA), Educação Digital (FACIMP–MA), Psicopedagogia Clínica e Institucional (FACIBRA–PR), LIBRAS (FACIBRA–PR) and Metodologia da Pesquisa Científica (FACIBRA–PR). As well, Psychoanalyst Clinical (SBPMA–MA) and Doctor Honoris causa mult. (3 titles), in honor assigned considering their research and findings on the historical-theological area.

The same is also the author of numerous articles, in addition to having published several books in the fields of education, psychology, philosophy, sociology and theology. He also are vice president of the União Brasileira de Escritores (Section MA); vice president of the pré-Conselho Regional de Pedagogia (MA), General Editor of SMTE (Science Magazine of Talmudic Education), founding member of CONISRA (Comitê Internacional pró-Israel Theodor Herzl), and is a member of the NGO Branch (UN) and member-subscriber of the UN Global Compact.

Moreover, he been acting in the city of Imperatriz–MA, for the strengthening of the interests of the local deaf community, in order to promote actions aimed at strengthening the deaf culture and knowledge and dissemination of SignWriting System in State of Maranhão.